

MEMO

TO: Members of the Commission
FROM: Stu Farwell, Consultant
DATE: December 1, 2014
RE: Status Report – Tree Removal Program

About mid-January 2015 or earlier and weather permitting, all of the most hazardous trees on the waiting list should be removed.

In the meantime we will be evaluating the known lesser hazardous trees with respect to their removal based on what people have requested and available budget funds.

A report will be presented at the January meeting outlining the tree programs for the remainder of the budget year.